

WHICH OF THESE BILLS COULD HURT YOU?

ALL OF THEM

LEGISLATION PROPOSING REDUCTIONS IN PAY, BENEFITS AND THE SIZE OF THE WORKFORCE

H.R. 243 (Ross, R-Fla.) would extend the freeze on federal employee pay through the end of calendar year 2015 and would require deep cuts in the federal workforce.

H.Con. Res. 96 (Ryan, R-Wis.) The House Budget Resolution for Fiscal Year 2015 contains $125 billion in cuts to federal retirement programs. It would require federal employees to contribute close to 6% more toward their retirement, would limit agencies to hiring only one employee for every three that leave, end the FERS supplement and phase out the defined benefit annuity portion of the federal retirement system, leaving only TSP. Would eliminate repayment by government of student loans for federal employees.

H.R. 1780 (Camp, R-Mich.) would require most federal employees to leave the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program (FEHBP) and instead join health plans established under the Affordable Care Act.

H.R. 237 (Marino, R-Pa.) would impose a hiring freeze on the federal government until the budget deficit has been eliminated.

H.R. 824 (Lummis, R-Wyo.) would require that the total number of federal employees does not exceed a maximum number spelled out in the legislation for each quarter of each calendar year. Reductions in the number of federal employees, if required, would be made through attrition and a freeze on hiring.

H.R. 1541 (Meadows, R-N.C.) would place limitations on the amount of awards or other discretionary monetary payments that can be paid to federal employees.

LEGISLATION ON OTHER KEY TOPICS

H.R. 107 and S. 785 (Gingrey, R-Ga. and Paul, R-Ky.) would repeal provisions of law that authorize the use of official time for union activity.

H.R. 249 and S. 1045 (Chaffetz, R-Utah and Coburn, R-Okla) would require the federal government to fire federal workers who fall behind in paying their taxes.

H.R. 2679 (Gardner, R-Colo.) would prohibit collective bargaining at the IRS.

H.R. 2557 (Johnson, R-Texas) would make imprisonment mandatory for unauthorized inspection or disclosure of tax return information.

H.R. 3139 (Duffy, R-Wis.) would abolish the NTEU-represented Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and replace it with an agency with inferior pay and benefits.
