

U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

VOTING RECORD -- 114TH CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION (2016)

House Vote 1 - HR 1927: Class Action Lawsuit Restrictions - Equal Pay Act Exemption

January 8, 2016 - Moore, (D-WI), amendment that would exempt a pay equity claim under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act or the Fair Labor Standards (Equal Pay) Act from the bill to restrict class action lawsuits. Rejected in Committee of the Whole 177-224. NTEU Position: YES

House Vote 2 - HR 1206: IRS Hiring Freeze - Congressional Tax Delinquency

April 20, 2016 - Kildee, (D-MI), motion send back to committee with instructions to report back to the House immediately with an amendment that would void the bill in years that the tax delinquency rate is greater in either chamber of Congress than it is in the Department of Treasury. The main bill imposed a hiring freeze on the IRS until it certified that it had no employees with a significant tax debt. Motion rejected 177-245. NTEU Position: YES

House Vote 3 - HR 4885: IRS Budget Cut - Passage

April 20, 2016 - Passage of the bill that would prohibit the Department of the Treasury from spending user fees collected by the Internal Revenue Service unless provided by an appropriations act. Passed 245-179. NTEU Position: NO.

House Vote 4 - HR 4890: IRS Bonus and Award Suspension - Passage

April 21, 2016 - Passage of the bill that would ban employees of the Internal Revenue Service from receiving a pay bonus or award, until the Department of the Treasury develops and submits a comprehensive customer service strategy to Congress. The strategy would need to be approved by the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration, and would need to include: appropriate telephone and correspondence levels of service, an assessment of services that can be shifted to self-service operations, and proposals to improve customer service in the short, medium, and long term. Passed 260-158. NTEU Position: NO.

House Vote 5 - HR 4974: Fiscal 2017 Military Construction-VA Appropriations - Union Membership

May 19, 2016 - Gosar, (R-AZ), amendment that would prohibit solicitation of labor union membership in Veterans Affairs Department facilities. Rejected in Committee of the Whole 200-225. NTEU Position: NO

House Vote 6 - HR 5055: Fiscal 2017 Energy-Water Appropriations - Energy Department Programs
